WPL Celebrates National Reading Month and Read Across America Day with a Dr. Seuss Birthday Bash

Worcester, MA – The Worcester Public Library invites you to celebrate National Reading Month and Read Across America Day with a Dr. Seuss Birthday Bash on Thursday, March 2 from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. The celebration will include stories, songs, cake, and a craft, and is recommended for children ages ten and under.

The National Education Association's Read Across America Day is a nationwide reading celebration that takes place annually on March 2, Dr. Seuss' Birthday. Across the county, schools, libraries, and community centers will celebrate. National Reading Month is observed every March in conjunction with Read Across America, with the goal of motivating kids to read every day of the year.
