April School Vacation Week Activities at the Worcester Public Library

Worcester, MA – The Worcester Public Library has a variety of special events and programs planned for school vacation week, from Tuesday, April 18 to Saturday, April 22.

At the Main Library, in addition to many of the regularly scheduled programs, the Youth Services Librarians will present a fun animal show, Creature Teachers on Thursday, April 20 at 11 a.m., and a Flower Power program at 2 p.m. Spring is the time to plant flowers. Come join us and plant your own marigold flower, then learn how to take care of it. On Friday, April 21 join us for Kite Making at 2 p.m. We will provide the kites and markers! Come design your own kite to take home.

The One City, One Library Branches will have special extended school vacation week hours as well.
