

Brunonia Barry

Author Event and Book Signing

Saturday, October 7 from 2 - 4 p.m.

Fiction Area in the Main Library

Brunonia Barry is the New York Times and international best selling author of The Lace Reader, The Map of True Places, and the recently published novel The Fifth Petal. She was the winner of New England Book Festival's award for Best Fiction and Amazon's Best of the Month, and her reviews and articles on writing have appeared in The London Times and The Washington Post. Brunonia co-chairs the Salem Athenaeum's Writers' Committee. She will be signing books after her presentation.

Free and open to the public.

Sponsored by the Friends of the
Worcester Public Library