International Games Day @ Your Library Brings Community Together to Read, Learn and Play

Event takes place on Saturday, November 19 from 2:30 to 4 p.m.

Worcester, MA – The Worcester Public Library will join over a thousand libraries around the world on November 19, 2016, for the ninth annual celebration of gaming in libraries – International Games Day @ Your Library. Like so many other libraries across the country and around the world, the Worcester Public Library will offer special gaming programs and events suitable for the whole family.

The event will take place in the Banx Room at the Main Library, 3 Salem Square, Worcester from 2:30 to 4 p.m. There will be a variety of games available: board games, strategy games, video games and more! Bring your friends and family -- the more the merrier!

International Games Day @ your library is an international initiative supported by the American Library Association, the Australian Library and Information Association, and Nordic Game Day. For more information on International Games Day please visit the International Games Day blog <http://igd.ala.org/>.

The event is free and open to the public.
