Laura Ramsey and Groove Trane Perform at the Worcester Public Library

Worcester, MA – The Worcester Public Library will host Berklee-trained performer and educator Laura Ramsey and her jazz quartet Groove Trane on Saturday, August 5 from 2 to 4 p.m. The group will perform selections from the great American songbook.

Ramsey is an experienced teacher and performer with a long history of working in the primary/secondary education, using development skills cultivated at Berklee College of Music. She has studied saxophone, clarinet, piano, and songwriting for 23 years and has 15 years of professional performance and teaching experience.

This program is administered by the Worcester Arts Council, for the Local Cultural Council – an agency supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

For more information on the Laura Ramsey and Groove Trane performance contact Linnea Sheldon, Community Relations and Communications Manager, at 508-799-1654 or lsheldon@mywpl.org.
