The Worcester Public Library Celebrates the Moon Festival *with The Mulan Performing Arts Association

Celebrates Chinese culture through music and dance as part of Worcester's Ethnic Mosaic.

Worcester, MA – The Worcester Public Library will welcome The Mulan Performing Arts Association on Saturday, September 17 from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. as part of the Moon Festival. The festival celebrates Chinese culture through music and dance, and is free and for people of all ages. Seating is limited, and registration is required for this event. Registration is available at mywpl.org or by calling 508-799-1655.

The Chinese Moon Festival, also known as the Mid-Autumn Festival, is one of the most important traditional Chinese festivals. It is also considered a harvest festival, with a history dating back more than 2,000 years.

About The Mulan Performing Arts Association

The Mulan Performing Arts Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to sharing Chinese Culture. Founded in 2006 by a group of Chinese immigrants, their mission is to introduce the colorful Chinese culture to people who are interested in learning more about China, and to pass cultural traditions onto their children through music and dance.

This program is administered by the Worcester Arts Council, for the Local Cultural Council – an agency supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.
