Worcester, MA – The Worcester Public Library will be hosting their Fourth Annual Volunteer Fair on Saturday, September 23 from 2 to 4 p.m. If you've ever wanted to learn about volunteering in the community but didn't know where to start, this fair is for you!

Whether you enjoy working outdoors, advocating for children, assisting people in crisis, or helping our immigrant population, representatives from local organizations will be available to discuss volunteer opportunities for all interests and backgrounds, especially for those aged 16 and older.

"The Volunteer Fair has grown in popularity with organizations and prospective volunteers alike, with over a dozen organizations from Worcester and Southern New England expected to attend this year," said Amy Klein, Reference Librarian.

The event will be held at the Main Library in the Saxe Room and Lobby. This event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be provided by the Friends of the Worcester Public Library.
