

Native American Nature Tales

with Master Storyteller
Diane Edgecomb

Saturday,
November 24
2:30 - 3:30 p.m.
Main Library

Native American Nature Tales brings to life tribal myths and legends of the animals and birds of North America. Ranging from the humorous to the heart-felt, these stories celebrate native culture and its strong links to the natural world. We learn an Abenaki canoeing song, explore over seven different animals in the Northwest legend of Loon's Song and discover why America is called Turtle Island. Join one of New England's favorite tellers, Diane Edgecomb as these rich stories create a colorful weave embracing all of nature. For families with children 4 and up.
